

Who are the three people
you are going to tell about your project?

What three emails or messages will you write or phone calls will you make in order to take action on your project?

Om Shri Matre Namaha

Who are all the roles you have to play to get the job done?
Do you step into each of these?
How and When?
Which ones do you not step into?
How will you change that?

The Inventor and Visionary?

The Coach?

The Idealist and Dreamer?

The Realist?

The Disciplinarian?

The Administrator?

The Accountant?

The Editor?

The Assistant?

The Child?
